Appendix- I

Form of the questionnaire

Normally any resident in a housing scheme have to interact with three sub cultures. These are, outsiders (people around the housing scheme), people of the community of the housing scheme and their immediate neighbors. As such questionnaire was partly based on the questionnaires in such away that it would guide the survey to reveal the attitudes towards the above three groups.

The questionnaires consist if three parts.

1. Questions on general information.
2. Questions on attitudes towards above mentioned subcultures
3. Questions on the built environment.
