

REFERENCES

1. Blue circle, (1987), Proposal on "Planned Maintenance"
2. Edwin Masrshall, (1986), "New Maintenance Techniques Cut Down Time", Industrial World, June 1986, pp 32-38.
3. Engineering News, (1991), "Maintenance Free Production", July 1991, pp 3-4.
4. Gunawardena, N. D., (1992), "Construction Equipment Management Practices", Transactions- 1992 (Volume 1), The Institution of Engineers, Sri Lanka.
5. Harris Frank and McCaffer Ronald, (1990), "Modern construction Management"
6. Harris Frank and McCaffer Ronald, (1982), "Construction Plant - Mangement and Investment Decisions"
7. Jhon Merino, (1984), " Anticipated brakedown", Today's Transport, Volume 19, No 5
8. Karunaratne, G., (1992), " Role of Training in Solving Construction Contractors' Problems ", Transactions - 1992 (Volume 1) , The Institution of Engineers, Sri Lanka.
9. Kelly, A., (1983), "Management of Industrial Maintenance".
10. Kieran H. Concannon, Andrew K. S. Jardine and Jhon Mcphee, (1990), "Balance Maintenance Costs Against Plant Reliability with Simulation Modeling", Institute of Industrial Engineers".
11. Mckane, I., Report on "The role of the computer and condition monitoring in maintenance management at Dunbar works".
12. Morrow, L.C., (1957), "Maintenance Engineering Handbook"
13. Reginald lee, (1989), "Building Maintenance Management"
14. Robert Rymment, (1984), " How oil analysis helps avoid fleet downtime ", Today's Transport, Volume 19, No 2.
15. Today's Transport, (1984), " Tire testing ", Today's Transport , January, 1984.
16. Training Service Division, ICTAD "Maintenance Management Course", Module 2.
17. Tucker, V. V., (1980), "Earthmoving Plant - An Introduction to its Selection, Operating and Costing"
18. Rodney Byles, (1994), "Earthmoving Manufacturers are developing machinery which can be operated remotely", Construction Today, September 94, pp 24-28.
19. Yoshikazu Takahashi and Takahashi Osada, (1985), " Total Productive Maintenance".